

HUMBOLDT PHILOSOPHY FORUM

In Collaboration with the Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

Free Keynote: "Revolutionary Care and Inclusive Excellence"

In The Great Hall on Wednesday, March 6 from 5:30 PM to 7:00 PM

Maurice Hamington is Professor of Philosophy and Affiliate Faculty of Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies at Portland State University. He writes about the theory and application of feminist care ethics. He is the author of Revolutionary Care: Commitment and Ethos (2024), Care Ethics and Poetry (2019), written with Ce Rosenow, The Social Philosophy of Jane Addams (2009), Embodied Care (2004), and Hail Mary? The Struggle for Ultimate Womanhood in Catholicism (1995). Hamington edited Feminism and Hospitality: Gender in the Host/Guest Relationship (2010) and has co-edited The Oxford Handbook of Jane Addams (2023), Care Ethics, Religion, and Spiritual Traditions (2022), Care Ethics in the Age of Precarity (2021), Care Ethics and Political Theory, (2015), Applying Care Ethics to Business (2011), and Socializing Care (2006). Hamington holds a Ph.D. in Philosophy from the University of Oregon and, a Ph.D. in Religion and Social Ethics, and an M.B.A. from the University of Southern California. He is currently working as a consultant for two major grants in the U.K. on care ethics and aesthetics. He is a Fulbright Specialist who will spend November of this year in Kyoto working with Japanese feminist care ethicists. For more information on his scholarly activities, see mhamington.com